Welcome to The Kenmore Inn

Situated among stately 18th and 19th century homes in historic Fredericksburg, The Kenmore Inn is a short walk to Mary Washington's House, Rising Sun Tavern, Fredericksburg Museum, and a myriad of historic sites, scores of antique shops, and great restaurants.

Built in circa 1793, the nine guest rooms are beautifully appointed with period antiques and offer many amenities. Each room features a private bathroom, flat screen television with cable, and high speed wireless internet. Four rooms offer working fireplaces, hardwood floors, and vaulted ceilings. A complimentary breakfast is served every morning in the Main Dining Room.

Guests of The Kenmore Inn can also enjoy a leisurely dinner in our romantic, candlelit dining room prepared by our Executive Chef and complemented by one of the best wine cellars in Virginia. Our English pub, with mahogany and polished copper horseshoe bar, is a great place to meet friends and just relax.
